

California's Best Value Zinfandel Back in Stock

America's favorite Zinfandel producer scores big again. Perennially described as one of the best red wine values in the market, you'd be hard pressed to find another wine on the planet at this price that matches the quality and consistency of Seghesio's "Sonoma" Zinfandel. For those who've tasted the wine, it should come as no surprise it made the Wine Spectator's coveted "Top 100 List" an unprecedented 4 out of the last 6 vintages! And it looks like the 2009 vintage might repeat the feat.

The 2009 vintage is already receiving great press. Personally, we feel it's arguably as good as the highly decorated 2007 (Wine Spectator #10 in the world). We just received our first batch of the highly regarded 2009 single vineyard offerings, as well. While supplies last.

2009 Seghesio Zinfandel Sonoma County $19.95 ($24 list)

90 points Wine Spectator: "Bold aromas of briary wild berry and cracked pepper lead to plush and layered black raspberry, toasty sage and espresso flavors that finish with zesty tannins. Drink now through 2016."—TF
