

Best Price in the US for Top Rated Argentine Cabernet

Argentina's best winemaker, Susana Balbo, is back with her 90+ point 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon. Known to many as the "Evita of Wine", Susana Balbo has probably produced a wider variety of wines than any other winemaker in Argentina. As the first Argentine winemaker to be hired as a consultant to make wine outside of Argentina, she has made wine in Australia, California, Chile, France, Italy, South Africa, and Spain, and she spends a month each year in a different wine region of the world studying with local winemakers and growers. Balbo is appreciated worldwide for her incredible artistry in making complex, elegant, and beautifully drinkable wines.

Stephen Tanzer calls this wine: "a satisfying, seamless cabernet with fine-grained dusty tannins and nice length. This punches above its weight class." Robert Parker wrote, "All Crios wines are phenomenal values worth buying by the case." Wine & Spirits voted Crios, "Value Brand of the Year" for 2009, 2007, and 2004!"

2007 Crios de Susan Balbo Cabernet Sauvignon Mendoza $11.99 Bottle (list $15) / $9.99 with purchase of 6 bottles or more

90 points Wine Advocate: "reveals an expressive perfume of cedar, spice box, black currant and black raspberry. This is followed by a medium to full-bodied wine with lots of savory black fruit, enough structure to evolve for 1-2 years, excellent balance, and a long, fruit-filled finish. Drink it over the next 3-4 years. The Crios de Susana Balbo label has rapidly become synonymous with great value." – Jay Miller
