

Lowest Price in Country on Gunderloch Spätlese

We just picked up a parcel of '07 Gunderloch at tremendous pricing. The Rieslings from Nackenheim, grown in classified sites on the "Roter Hang" (red slope), repeatedly win the highest international awards. WHWC is pleased to announce that the elegant, off-dry white that Gault Millau calls "an overseas ambassador" among German Rieslings is currently in stock at the lowest price in the country. Gunderloch's 2007 Nackenheimer Rotenberg Spätlese is classically styled with slight sweetness, delicate acidity, expressive peach and apricot nuances, and a long mineral finish. Normally this wine retails for $50, so email or call us today at (818) 222-1111 to secure your bottles before it's all sipped up!

2007 Gunderloch Riesling Nackenheim Rothenberg Spätlese – email special $28.99 ($50 list) next lowest price on the web $34.99

93+ points Fine Wine Review: "Good as the Diva is, the Nackenheim Rothenberg Spätlese shows much greater complexity and some honey aspects in the nose. In the mouth, the wine is pure, sweet, and honeyed (but not from botrytis) with yellow plums. The wine is pure but needs a little more time to come together. 8.5% stated alcohol. (Issue #122; 2008)"

92 points David Schildknecht (Wine Advocate): "Gunderloch's 2007 Nackenheimer Rotenberg Spätlese smells gloriously of orange blossom, fennel pollen, sage, black tea, and tangerine. To this cast is added on the palate a honey and malt-like richness and orange liqueur projection of superbly-ripe fruit, yet with elegance, lift, and sheer juiciness that make the next sip downright irresistible, even if the memory of the last seemingly won't die away. I would plan on savoring this beauty over the next 12-15 years."

92 points Wine Spectator: "A pungent aroma of red slate is followed by ripe peach, orange and passion fruit flavors in this rich, concentrated white, which is succulent and balanced by a bright structure. Excellent length. Drink now through 2018. 500 cases imported. (4/30/09)"

Cheers,
