The Grape That Focused World Attention on New Zealand

What's more crowd-pleasing and full of flavor than a juicy New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc? Not a whole lot. New Zealand's top Sauvignons are among the most exotic, vibrant, intensely flavored Sauvignon Blancs in the world. Quite simply, they taste like no other Sauvignons made. This lively little white comes from the epicenter and crowned jewel of New World Sauvignon: Marlborough's Golden Triangle, whose unique soils and cool temps yield Sauvignons of intense pleasure and indulgence. Drylands bursts with lilikoi and grapefruit sorbet on the nose. On the palate it's mouthwatering, zippy, and guzzlable, perfect for cocktail hour with friends, dinner parties, or just to crack open at the end of a long workday. This wine is available for immediate shipment or pick up so call or click now. We encourage to stock up...you'll be amazed how quick and easy a bottle of this juice goes down and our price can't be beat.

2010 Drylands Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough $14.95
$12.95 on any purchase of 6 bottles or more

90 Points Wine Spectator: "There's a distinct tropical note to the juicy pineapple, passion fruit, melon and citrus flavors, where a lime peel detail weaves in and out. Smooth, juicy and very appealing, with a long finish. Drink now." -MW
